

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, November 15. 1705.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated November 13.

Vienna, October 31.

COUNT Philip Lewis of Zinzendorf, Chancellor of the Court, set out on Wednesday last, in order to act as one of his Imperial Majesty's Commissioners in negotiating the Treaty with the Malecontents of Hungary, in the Room of Count Wratislaw, who is indispos'd: But he is to stop at Presburg till he receive Advice that Preliminaries are adjusted. M. Thiel Councillor of War is to follow him very shortly. 'Tis reported the Archbishop of Colozza will assist in the Conferences at Tirnau, so that the Report which was spread abroad that Prince Ragotski had caus'd him to be seiz'd and confin'd, does not prove true. Count Berezeni is at Tirnau, with other Heads of the Malecontents. 'Tis also reported that Prince Ragotski is to come thither. The last Advices from the Imperial Army commanded by General Herbeville say, That they were near Great Waradin, and would continue their March to succour Transilvania. They add, that one of the Enemy's Detachments that had laid Siege to the Castle of Bibersberg was oblig'd to draw off, the Garrison making a vigorous Resistance. Another Body of 3000 Malecontents, was likewise forc'd to retire from before the Castle of Solmos near Lippa on the Maros, having been repuls'd in 3 Attacks. Count Herberstein has drawn together some Troops to oblige General Oskay to retire from about Edenburg, which he threatens to attack. The Prince of Furtemberg is lately arriv'd here from Saxony, and 'tis said is to transact some Affair of Consequence for the King of Poland his Master: Count Straatman his Imperial Majesty's Envoy at the Court of that Prince, is also expected in some Days from Saxony. 'Tis not as yet known when the Prince Sobieski will be set at Liberty. The Differences between this Court and that of Rome are still on the same Foot, but 'tis believ'd they will be amicably made up in a short time. 'Tis reported the Emperor demands, among other things, That Cardinal Paolucci his principal Minister be dismiss'd from his Employments, because by his Partiality for France, the Imperialists were oblig'd to quit several Posts and particularly Ostiglia, which has been a great detriment to his Imperial Majesty's Affairs in Italy: That the Proceedings against the Marquis del Vasto and the Prince of Caserte be annull'd, and that those two Noblemen be restor'd to their former State: And that the Neapolitans be releas'd, who were imprison'd for their Affection to the House of Austria.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated November 12.

From the Armies of the Allies incamp'd at Turnhout, November 9. The 6th of this Month we decamp'd from Hoogstraten and came hither. To Day Colonel Cromstroom is gone to treat anew with some of the Enemy's Commissioners of an Exchange of Prisoners. 'Tis said our Generals design to put Garrisons into Endhoven, Hasselt, Bilsen, Beringen, Bree, and Hamond, and at the same time to cause those small Places to be fortify'd for the Security of the Troops that shall be put into them. The Auxiliary Troops of Denmark and Hanover are to pass the Maes at Ruremond and Venlo; the first are to Winter in the lower Guelderland and Overysel, and the other on the other side of the Rhine: Those of Hesse are likewise to pass the Maes and afterwards the Moselle to take Winter-Quarters in the Hontsrug.

From the Army of the Allies at Loemel, Nov. 12. The 10th of this Month we decamp'd from Turnhout, and came to Rursel. The same Day the English Troops left the Army, and march'd towards their Winter Quarters assign'd them in Breda and other neighbouring Places. The 11th we decamp'd from Rursel and came with our Right to Luykx-geftel and our Left to Leomel. We continue here to Day (the 12th;) but to morrow we shall continue our March towards the Maese and arrive in the Evening at Peer. The Weather is extreme cold in these Parts, which makes our Men impatient to be in Quarters. Part of the Enemy's Army continues still incamp'd behind their Lines; but 'tis reported that by the 15th Instant they will all separate and go into Winter-Quarters. From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated November 17.

Antwerp, November 13. The Army of the 2 Crowns is to separate after to Morrow to go into Winter-Quarters. M. de Saillant Lieutenant General, with M. de Tot Quarter-Master is to command in Namur: The Count de Gasse is to command in this City, the Duke of Villeroy in Brussels; M. de Caraman Lieutenant General in Louvain; M. de Souffernon Lieutenant General in Malines; and the Count de la Morre in Ghant, Bruges and Ostend. 'Tis advis'd that the Marshal de Villeroy and de Marfin will likewise continue on the Frontier during the Winter. The Chevalier de Courcelles Lieutenant General is to command in Luxembourg.

Falmouth, November 10. Yesterday sail'd hence to the Eastward Her Majesty's Ships the Moderate and Hazardous with 2 Dutch Frigates formerly mention'd, taking under their Convoy 13 Sail of Ships laden with Tin, 16 Sail of Dutch Prizes and about 20 Sail of Coasters. Arriv'd the Godolphin Packet-Boat in 17 Days from Lisbon, Captain Gibson Master; but last from Kinsale. Last Night the Burchet Galley, having laden Fish at Mounts-Bay, coming hither, was attack'd by a French Privateer off the Lizard, with which she maintain'd a Fight of several Hours, but was forc'd so near the Shore that she struck on a Rock and is lost, but as the Crew was saved.

Bristol, November 12. Yesterday here arriv'd 2 Ships from Nevis, from Montserrat, and from Antigua; all which came out in Company with 40 odd Sail of Ships the 14th of September last, under Convoy of the Linn and Margaret Men of War; and Friday last in the Morning the Fleet fell in with Sir John Jennings's Squadron and the East-India Merchant Ships bound up the Channel, and he ordered the Margaret Man of War to see our Ships about Lundy.

Weymouth, November 12. Yesterday was brought in here by 3 Guarnzey Privateers, a French Prize of 40 Tons, laden with Sugar from Morlaix: The Prisoners

Prisoners say that Monsieur St. Paul lost many brave Officers and Men in taking the Eastland Convoys, &c.

Yarmouth, November 12. On Saturday last sail'd from hence about 40 Sail of light Colliers and Coasters, under Convoy of Her Majesty's Ships the Dolphin and Gosport: And Yesterday came through these Roads 20 Sail of laden Colliers, most from Sunderland.

Dartmouth, November 11. This Day was sent in here by Her Majesty's Ship the Mary, the Welcome of St. Malo, a Privateer of 16 Guns which she took about a Fortnight since and carried into Ireland; there came with them in company from thence the Resolution, Leferne, Exeter, Dunkirk, Medway, Kings-fisher, Dartmouth and Monmouth, with ten Ships from the East Indies and one from Jamaica; they join'd in their Passage her Majesty's Ships Lynn and Margaret, with the Leward Island Ships; all which are gone to the Eastward, save the Mary and 2 other Men of War which put into Torbay.

Harwich, November 30. On Sunday the Marlborough Packet-Boat sail'd from hence with a Mail for Holland: And the Norwich with the Bonadventure Man of War sail'd for Hambrough.

London, November 15.

Last Night Advice came that 22 Merchant Ships are arriv'd in the Downs from Barbadoes, under Convoy of her Majesty's Ship the Portland. They bring an Account that in the Hurricane which happened at Barbadoes in August last (mention'd in one of our former) 24 Vessels were driven ashore, most of which were Brigantines and Sloops.

At the Desire of several Persons of Quality.

At the Theatre Royal in Drury Lane, this present Thursday, being the 15th. of November, will be presented, a Comedy, call'd, The Tender Husband: or, The Accomplish'd Fool. With several new Entertainments of Singing in Italian, by the Famous Signiora Margarita de L'Epine, and an English Song compos'd by the late Mr. Henry Purcell. And Dancing by Monsieur Ch. rrier and others.

At the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Thursday, being the 15th of November, will be presented, the last new Comedy, call'd, The Confid' racy. With several Entertainments of Dancing by the Famous Monsieur de Barques, M^s Elford, Mademoiselle Noisy and several others.

The Plays are Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Lintott Next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar.

An Entertainment by Mr. CLINCH of BARNET, who imitates the Flute, Double Curtell, the Organ with 3 Voices, the Horn, Huntsman and Pack of Hounds, the German Doctor, the Old Woman, the Drunken Man, the Bells: All instruments are perform'd by his natural Voice. To be seen this present Evening, at 7 a Clock at the Rose Tavern in Curriers-Alley near Chancery-Lane. Price 1 s.

Yesterday was Publish'd,

The fair Example: or, the Modish Citizens, a Comedy, written by Mr. Elcourt: And to-morrow will be publish'd Hampsted Heath, a Comedy, written by the Author of the Yeoman of Kent, as they were both acted at the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane. Price 1 s. 6 d. each. Printed for Bernard Lintott at the Cross-Keys and Crown next Nando's Coffee-house near Temple-Bar.

Lost (November the 14 b. 1705.) from a Gentlewoman's side, between Honey-Lane-Market and great East-Cheap, A plain Gold Watch-Case. Whoever brings it to John Berry Watch-maker at the Dial in Clements-lane, Lombard-street, shall have 20 s. Reward, for these following.

The Anniversary Feast of the Gentlemen Educated at Merchant Taylor's School, will be held on Thursday the 20th of this Instant November at Clothworker's Hall in Mincing-Lane: Tickets may be had at Mr. Walfords, Bookseller in St. Paul's Church-yard, Mr. Johnson Hofer in Fleet-street, Oliver's Coffee-house adjoining to Westminster-hall, Will's Coffee-house near the Royal Exchange, and Mr. Barnardistons the Horn Tavern at Doctor's Commons.

A Catalogue of Books, part the 10, which will continue to be sold by Auction this present Thursday, (at Tom's Coffee-house adjoining to Ludgate) mostly consisting of scarce and valuable English Books both Ancient and Modern, amongst which are, Colliers Dictionary last Edition, Loggans Cuts of all the Colleges in Oxford, Josephus's Works, Beaumont and Fletcher's Plays, Cowley's Works, &c. beginning exactly at 4 of the Clock, and continue daily till all are sold. Catalogues are given at Mr. Pooles under the Royal Exchange, Mr. Chantry's at Lincolns-Inn back Gate, and at the Place of Sale, where the Books may be view'd at any time.

The History of George A Green, Pindar of the Town of Wakefield. His Birth, Calling, Valour, and Reputation in the Country. With divers Pleasant, as well as Serious Passages in the Course of his Life and Fortune. Illustrated with Cuts. Printed and Sold by Samuel Ballard, at the Blue-Ball, in Little-Britain, and F. Fawcett in the new Exchange in the Strand. Price 1 s.

This Day is publish'd,

Volpone: or, The Fox, a Fable very applicable to the present times. Sold by B. Bragg at the Blue-ball in Ave-Mary-Lane. Where may be had a Tract just publish'd, Entitled the State of the Church, and of the Dissenters in respect to their present Pretensions, and those they expect by means of their pretended Interests in the ensuing Parliament, &c. N. B. A second part of this Treatise will be publish'd on Saturday the 17th Instant: Sold as aforesaid.

Whereas there has been several Persons who has pretended to sell the true Spanish roll'd Tobacco; These are therefore to inform the World, that Jeremiah Stooks at Garraways Coffee-house in Exchange-Ally, bought the whole parcel that was brought into England, as by Prize taken by Her Majesty's Fleet at Vigo, and that there is not a Notr Potracco in England but what he has in his Hands: These are therefore to advise all Gentlemen, that they may be furnish'd with the same Tobacco at 8 s. per Pound, at the above mention'd Place and no where else.

The present State of all the Kingdoms, Sovereignities, Republicks, &c. in Europe, and the various Revolutions in each: Containing the particular Constitution of their respective Governments; the Extent of their Territories, their Dependant Governments; with the Names of their Archbishops and Bishops; and all their Civil and Military Great Officers: Other pedigrees of all the Noble Families in each Country; their Orders of Knighthood; their Academies of Learned Societies; with Lists of their Members; and the Names of the Ambassadors of all Countries. Printed for T. Bennet at the Half-Moon, and D. Midwinter at the Rose and Crown, in St. Paul's Church-yard.

A Collection of State Tracts publish'd on occasion of the late Revolution in 1688. and during the Reign of King William III. Vol. I. To which is prefix'd, The History of the Dutch War in 1672. translated from the French Copy printed at Paris in 1682, but suppress'd at the Instance of the English Ambassador, because of the Discovery it made of the League betwixt the Kings of France and England for subverting Europe, and introducing Popery into these Kingdoms, &c. With marginal Notes quite thro' the Book, and an Alphabetical Table. Sold by the Book-sellers. Price 20 s.

The Epistles of Phalaris, translated into English from the Original Greek. By S. Whately, M. A. late of Magdalen College in Oxford. The 2d Edition. Printed for J. Barnes in the Pall-Mall, B. Lintott in Fleet-street, and J. Round in Exchange-Ally in Cornhill. Price 2 s. 6 d.

Advices from Parassus, in 2 Centuries. With the Political Touchstone, and an Appendix to it. Written by Trajano Boccalini, to which is added, A continuation of the Advices, by Girolamo Briani of Modena. All Translated from the Italian by several Hands. Revis'd and Corrected by Mr. Hughes. With an Alphabetical Table to the whole Book. Printed for D. Brown without Temple-bar, B. Took, and B. Lintott in Fleet-street, A. Bell and J. Round in Cornhill, D. Midwinter in St. Paul's Church-yard, and J. Barnes in the Pall-Mall. Price 15 s.

Just Publish'd,

Paraphrase and Notes on the first Epistle of St. Paul to the Corinthians. By the Author of the Paraphrase and Notes on the Epistle of St. Paul to the Galatians. Printed for A. and J. Churchill at the Black Swan in Water-Work-Row.

This Day is publish'd,

Concio coram Reverendissimo Archiepiscopo, Reverendis admodum Episcopis, & Clero Provincia Cantuar. Synodice Congregatis, Habita, in Ecclesia Cathedrali S. Pauli Lond. Mens. Octobris die 25. A. D. 1705. A Georgio Stanhope. S. T. P. Decano Cantuariensi, Regis Majestati a sacris, Jussu Reverendissimi publici juris facta. Londini: Impensis R. Sate in Porticu Hospitalij Grayenij Australi, & R. Knaplock ad Insigne Angelij & Coronae in Cameterio Paulino. N. B. A Translation of this Sermon is now in the Press and will be publish'd on Monday next.

The Original Angelic Tincture for Coughs (by an Honourable and Learned Physician) most certainly becalms the most violent and impetuous Coughs in a Moment, and cures them perfectly in a few Days, being daily found to be a most sure help for Coughs of all sorts, whether moist or dry, Physical or Consumptive, Hoars, Choking, Chinking, and Asthmatical Coughs, great Coughs, &c. It elevates the feeble and drooping Spirits; amends the Faults of the Blood and Brain, cures Catarrhs and Deflections, leaving the whole Body exceeding lively, vigorous and in perfect Health, being a Medicine which exceeds all Credit, doing the Cure speedily when a Thousand other things fail, wherefore esteem it as a Jewel. Sold only at John's Coffee House in Swithins-Ally, by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street. Price 2 s. 6 d.

ADVERTISEMENT.

Kindige Mentis. An Essay of the Being and Nature of Mind, wherein the Distinction of Mind and Body, the Substantiality, Personality, and Perfection of Mind is asserted; and the Original of our Minds, their present, separate, and future State, is freely inquir'd into in order to a more certain Foundation for the Knowledge of God and our selves, and the Clearing all Doubts and Objections that have been or may be made concerning the Life and Immortality of our Souls. In a new Method, by a Gentleman. In 2vo. Sold by John Lawrence at the Angel in the Poultry.

The Minister's Advice to his Parish; with Directions how to begin and carry on a good Work in the Soul, express'd (with great Care) in Words easy to be understood, that the whole may be generally useful. Price 2 d. or 12 s. per Hundred. An Explanation of the Assembly of Divines shorter Catechism: being the substance of some late Explanations, with a Form, or Pattern of Prayer, drawn out of the said Catechism, with Directions about Family Prayer. Price 6 d. Stich'd: or, 5 s. per Dozen. Both Printed for Jonathan Robinfon at the Golden Lion in St. Paul's Church-yard.